

VICE PRESIDENT, EXPANSION - JOSH GABBARD

Josh Gabbard has proudly been involved with Phi Chi Theta since the Spring of 2011 when he was initiated into the Beta Theta Chapter at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas. During his three years of collegiate membership with Beta Theta, he held various positions including President. During his time Josh's proudest accomplishment was establishing a strong alumni network for the Beta Theta Chapter and assisting in planning and hosting Beta Theta's 50 th Anniversary Gala in April 2013 as Executive Vice President. Josh was the recipient of the Anna E. Hall Memorial Scholarship in 2012 and the Kay Durden Memorial Scholarship in 2014 from the Phi Chi Theta Educational Foundation.

Josh is a Life Member with the Houston Alumni Chapter. Josh received the inaugural President's Award of Merit in 2014 and the Alumni Meritorious Achievement Award in 2016.

After graduating with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting and a Master of Science in Accounting from Sam Houston State, Josh worked in Ernst and Young's Houston Assurance practice for five years. Josh now works for Houston based Kelsey-Seybold Medical group.

When Josh is not working, he can be found playing tennis in various leagues around Houston or out with a group of friends. He also enjoys reading mystery novels, especially the Alex Cross series from James Patterson and Tom Clancy's Jack Ryan series.
