

CENTRAL-SOUTHERN DIRECTOR - RILEY SALMON

Riley graduated from the University of South Florida with two Bachelor's Degrees in Financial Planning and Finance. He was initiated into Zeta Rho Fall 2019 and held multiple officer positions from Vice President of Finance to President. Currently, Riley is working in New York City for JPMorgan Chase in the rotational CADP analyst program as he also pursues his Master of Science in Financial Management at Boston University.

In his free time, Riley can be found reading, hiking, or baking. Some of his personal goals are to read most pieces of classical literature, hike many mountain trails, and to bake the perfect chocolate chip cookie.